KINGSBURG DISTRICT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
FESTIVAL POLICIES AND VENDOR APPLICATION

GENERAL POLICIES:

All applications are subject to approval by the Festival Committee, and Board of Directors of the Kingsburg District Chamber of Commerce, who have the right to limit the number of similar items exhibited for sale, make all final decisions on all matters regarding the event, remove, without compensation, participants for non-compliance to any policy, assure that all arts and crafts items meet the required standards of original art, hand-crafted items. All applicants must comply with the Fresno County Health Department and Kingsburg Fire Department regulations. Items to be sold are to be listed. All participants are responsible for their own liability insurance coverage for any claims which might arise within their display area or from their activities at the event. The Kingsburg District Chamber of Commerce, the City of Kingsburg nor the Festival Committee members shall have any liability for loss or damage to property belonging to participants. All participants shall display and sell from their designated areas only, and shall not in any way interfere with the merchants of Kingsburg in their usual conduct of business. Those merchants choosing to display and sell from their own store front need to notify the Chamber of such intent; and must stay within the boundaries of their store front, free of charge. There will be no sharing of display area: each vendor must have his/her own area. Participants are liable for any damage to display area. The Festival will be held regardless of weather conditions, and no refunds of fees will be made due to weather or other occurrences beyond the control of the Kingsburg District Chamber of Commerce.

Thank You,

Santa Lucia Celebration Committee.
